  - (i) the amount stipulated in the agreement as the value of the improvements or as the amount to be expended on the improvements, or

35. (1) Where the Commissioner is of the opinion that a transaction, operation or scheme, in this section referred to as a “transaction”, including a transaction for the alienation of property, is fictitious or artificial, or is entered into or carried out otherwise than as a transaction between independent persons dealing at arm’s length and that such transaction has the effect of avoiding, reducing or postponing the liability to tax of any person for any tax year, he may disregard such transaction for the purposes of this Act and determine the liability for the tax chargeable under this Act as if the transaction had not been entered into or carried out, or in such manner as in the circumstances he deems appropriate to counteract such avoidance, reduction or postponement.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the expression “at arm’s length”, a transaction of any of the following kinds shall for the purposes of subsection (1) be deemed not to be a transaction at arm’s length —

(3) Where any agreement in relation to, or any change in, the shareholding in any company has been entered into or effected, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, and the Commissioner is of the opinion that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such agreement or change was to utilize an assessed loss or any balance of an assessed loss incurred by the company, in order to avoid or reduce the liability to tax of the company or any other person for any tax year, a deduction in respect of such assessed loss or balance of assessed loss shall not be allowed.

Provided that, except in the case of a variable rate loan stock company quoted on the Botswana Stock Exchange, where, in the opinion of the Commissioner, the rate of interest payable on such loan is excessive by reference to the commercial rate generally prevailing at the time the loan was made, the deduction shall be limited to such amount as the Commissioner deems reasonable;

- (k) expenditure incurred by that person during the tax year —
    - (i) on scientific research undertaken by him for the development of his business, not being expenditure of a capital nature; or

Provided that, except in the case of an assessed loss incurred in carrying on a business of farming, mining or prospecting, no assessed loss shall be carried forward as a deduction for more than the five years next succeeding the tax year in which that loss arose.

(6) Where an assessed loss is determined in relation to any person in the carrying on of a business, the deduction provided in subsection (2) shall not be affected by reason only of the temporary discontinuance of the carrying on of that business by that person.

(7) Where, in respect of the disposal —

(a) by any person other than a person carrying on a mining or prospecting business, of any interest in mineral rights or mining or prospecting rights or mining or prospecting information over land situated in Botswana; or

(b) by any person, of any share or interest in the capital or income of a company holding mineral rights over land situated in Botswana, the deductions allowed under this Part in relation to such source of gross income exceed the assessable income from that source, the loss arising therefrom shall be deemed to be an assessed loss to be allowed only as a deduction against future gross income from that source.

46. (1) Subject to subsection (2), and notwithstanding section 45, where an assessed loss is incurred in any tax year in carrying on a business of farming by any person, other than a company, such person may elect, within three years after the end of that tax year by notice in writing to the Commissioner, that the whole or any part of such assessed loss shall be deducted in ascertaining his chargeable income for that tax year:

DIVISION I — RATES OF TAX

58. (1) Subject to this Part, tax shall be charged on the taxable income for each tax year at the relevant rates specified in the Eighth Schedule:

(3) Where a resident company pays withholding tax under paragraph 2 of the Seventh Schedule, at the rate specified therein, on dividends distributed to a shareholder, this shall be a final charge to tax, and the dividends shall not form part of the assessable income of the shareholder.

59. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where in any tax year a resident company is liable to deduct tax from dividends in accordance with section 57 (1) and the Seventh Schedule, hereinafter referred to as “withholding tax”, and has paid such tax to the Commissioner, and such company is also liable for additional company tax as provided in Table IV of the Eighth Schedule, the amount of withholding tax shall be set off, in whole or in part, against the additional company tax due for that tax year:

the Commissioner may make an assessment to the best of his judgment.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), where the Commissioner is of the opinion that a person in any of the circumstances specified in section 66 is chargeable to tax for any tax year, he may at any time assess such person without first requiring him to furnish a tax return under any of the provisions of this Act.

(5) When a person fails to furnish a tax return for any tax year, the Commissioner shall serve on such person a notice in writing requesting him to furnish the tax return within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(6) If after the expiration of the time specified in the notice referred to in subsection (5) the person on whom the notice was served fails to furnish the tax return, the Commissioner shall, where a penalty has been imposed under section 116(2), make an assessment on him in respect of the penalty.

(7) The provisions of section 87 shall not apply to an assessment made on any person under subsection (6), except where the person so assessed objects that he is not liable to furnish a tax return.

(2) The determination of the assessed loss of any person for any tax year under subsection (1) shall constitute the making of an assessment by the Commissioner, and such assessment shall be notified in writing to the person assessed, and the provisions of this Act other than sections 84 and 85 shall apply as if such determination were the determination of the amount of the taxable income of such person for such tax year.

(3) For the purposes of this Act "assessed loss" shall not include a loss ascertained under the Tenth Schedule.

Provisional
assessments

82. (1) Without prejudice to the powers of the Commissioner under section 76, where a provisional return has been furnished by any person under section 65, the Commissioner may proceed to make a provisional assessment in the amount of the taxable income disclosed in such return, and shall determine the tax payable accordingly.

(2) Notwithstanding any extension of time which has been granted under section 76 for the furnishing of a tax return for any tax year, any tax payable under a provisional assessment shall be due and payable within the time specified in section 94, and may be recovered in the manner provided in Part XIII, but upon the furnishing of such tax return the Commissioner shall make an additional assessment or a reduced assessment or confirm the provisional assessment, as the case may be.

assessments

(2) An assessment may be made at any time prior to the expiry of four years from the end of the four years specified in subsection (1) if the Commissioner is satisfied that an amount which was subject to tax and should have been assessed under subsection (1) has not been assessed because the person in relation to whom an assessment should have been made under the said subsection (1) —

- (a) has misrepresented certain material facts or neglected or failed to disclose such facts;
- (b) has failed to furnish a tax return; or
- (c) has furnished an incorrect tax return.

(4) Where any fraud or wilful default has been committed in connexion with tax for any tax year by or on behalf of any person, and —

- (a) such person is an individual who is alive at the time the assessment is made, or a person other than an individual, an assessment in relation to such tax year may be made at any time; or
- (b) such person is deceased, subject to subsection (5), an assessment may only be made in respect of the tax year in which he died and the five immediately preceding tax years.

(5) In the case of an assessment made upon the executor of an estate of a deceased person in accordance with section 16, the assessment shall be made within three years of the end of the tax year in which such person died.

(3) In this section “notice of assessment” includes a notice of a reduced assessment, an additional assessment and a provisional assessment.

Record of
assessments

85. The Commissioner shall maintain in such manner as he thinks fit a record of all assessments made in respect of each tax year.

assessment

86. (1) Subject to section 79 (1) and (3) and section 80, where in relation to an assessment —

(a) no valid notice of objection has been given under section 87;

(b) subsequent to the determination of an objection, no valid notice of appeal has been given under section 90; or

(c) an appeal has been determined and there is no right of further appeal, such assessment shall be final and not subject to appeal.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the Commissioner from making any additional assessment for any tax year which does not involve reopening any matter which has been determined on appeal for such tax year.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), where any fraud or wilful default has been committed by or on behalf of any person in relation to his liability to tax for any tax year, the Commissioner may make an additional assessment for such tax year even though it may involve reopening a matter which has been determined on appeal.

Provided that no objection shall be considered in the absence of a tax return for the tax year to which the assessment relates.

(2) Where the assessment is —

(a) an additional assessment; or

  - (b) lodged with him, in the absence of such tax return, if such tax return is subsequently furnished to him within such period as he shall specify; or
  - (c) lodged with him within such further period as he shall specify if a tax return was furnished to him:

Provided that the Commissioner shall not consider an objection to an assessment in terms of this subsection unless he is satisfied that reasonable cause has been shown for the delay in lodging the objection or furnishing the tax return, as the case may be.

88. (1) The Commissioner shall consider any valid objection made under section 87 and may either disallow it or allow it either wholly or in part, and shall by notice in writing inform the person concerned of his decision.

Decision by Commissioner

(2) If a decision of the Commissioner requires the reduction of an assessment made on any person, the Commissioner shall issue a notice of reduced assessment to that person, together with the notice of his decision, or as soon as is practicable thereafter.

(4) When the final instalment of a designated company's estimated tax for a tax year under subsection (1) becomes due and payable and it appears to the company that the actual tax due for that tax year is likely to exceed the estimated tax, the company shall, in such case, submit an amended estimate of its taxable income and the tax calculated thereon and pay such amount of the amended estimated tax which remains unpaid.

(5) If it appears to the Commissioner that the estimated tax specified in the annual declaration submitted by a designated company is not correct, he may at any time, by notice in writing served on the company, specify its estimated tax for the tax year in question, and the annual declaration shall thereupon cease to have effect.

(6) The amount of the estimated tax of a designated company specified in the annual declaration, or in a revised declaration replacing the same, or by notice served on the company under subsection (3) (a) or (5), as the case may be, shall be deemed to have been computed by the company in accordance with section 113, and the provisions of that section shall apply accordingly.

(7) The amount of the estimated tax for a designated company specified in the annual declaration, or in a revised declaration replacing the same, or by notice served on the company under subsection (3) (a) or (5), as the case may be, which declaration or notice was submitted or served —
