

PROCLAMATION.

BY

HIS EXCELLENCY THE HIGH COMMISSIONER.

No. 36, 1909.—DATED 22nd DECEMBER, 1909.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the effect of section nineteen of the High Commissioner's Proclamation of the 10th day of June, 1891, as in force in the Bechuanaland Protectorate;

And, whereas, it is expedient to remove such doubts:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the powers in me vested, I do hereby declare, proclaim and make known as follows:—

Repealing Section 19 of Proclamation of 10th June, 1891.

1. Section nineteen of the High Commissioner's Proclamation of the 10th day of June, 1891, shall be and is hereby repealed as regards its application to the Bechuanaland Protectorate.

Putting in operation the laws in force in the Cape Colony on the 10th June, 1891.

2. Subject to the provisions of any Order in Council, in force in the Bechuanaland Protectorate at the date of the taking effect of this Proclamation, and to the provisions of any proclamation or regulation in force in the said Protectorate at such date (not including the provisions of the section hereby repealed) the laws in force in the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope on the 10th day of June, 1891, shall mutatis mutandis and so far as not inapplicable be the laws in force and to be observed in the said Protectorate, but no Statute of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, promulgated after the 10th day of June, 1891, shall be deemed to apply, or to have applied, to the said Protectorate unless specially applied thereto by Proclamation.

Commencement of Proclamation.

3. This Proclamation shall have force and take effect from the date of its publication in the Gazette.
